

Press Release 5.16.2019

Thursday, May 16, 2019 | Santander Bank, Boylston Street, Boston MA:

IdeaGen was on hand to attend the Santander Bank Small Business Networking event held on Thursday, May 16, 2019. Nasrene M. Pimental, CEO and Founder of IdeaGen Corporation, was there to meet and greet Small Business Relationship Manager Divya Salhi and speak with other attendees and bank representatives. See photo above of the networking event in the lobby of the 575 Boylston Street branch where the event took place. “I feel it was a successful opportunity for me to network and see what I can learn about Small Business loans to connect with Santander on a different level as a lending institution (I’m currently a banking client),” Nasrene continues, “I seem to have received some interest in my ideas and Business Plan which was an added bonus for the event.”

Paper handouts were available for Small Business Loans and light refreshments were served. Look for more of IdeaGen in the press as we move forward and push for our Plymouth Launch in the future. Nasrene M. Pimental, CEO continues to push through and break glass ceilings as she goes to provide a new age Tech company that is also family friendly and offers more options for employees for living.
